Sir,

The Parliamentary Research and Training Institute for Democracies (PRIDE) (erstwhile BPST) is a premier institution providing systematic orientation and training in the field of parliamentary procedures and processes for various stakeholders of parliamentary democracy. The PRIDE, as part of its activities has been organizing Orientation Programmes, Seminars, Workshops etc. for Members of Parliament. PRIDE also organizes Orientation Programmes for newly elected Members of State Legislatures in the country. Besides, Study Visits, Appreciation Courses and Training Programmes are also organized for stakeholders such as officials of Government, officials of State Legislatures, Members of foreign Parliaments, foreign parliamentary officials, etc.

On the initiative of Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha to spread awareness on the role of sports in sustainable development, health and solidarity, PRIDE, Lok Sabha Secretariat is celebrating 'International Day of Sports for Development and Peace' on the 6th April 2021 by organising panel discussion on various themes. The day is celebrated worldwide to mark the power of sport to bring about social change, development and foster an environment of global peace.

The Members of Parliament/eminent resource persons from sports background are being invited for delivering lectures during the pannel discussion. The live telecast of the programme will be available on Tuesday, 6th April 2021 from 10:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. You are requested to make arrangements to inform this to the Hon'ble Members of the Legislative Assembly/Legislative Council and also the officials of your State Legislature Secretariat to enable them to attend the programme. The online link for accessing the programme live will be shared in due course.

Yours sincerely,

(DR. DEEPAK GOSAIN)
