The tag line of this endeavour is 'Tamaso Ma Jyotirgamaya' meaning, 'from darkness, lead me to light'. With the experts illuminating the intelligence of students, this endeavour promises to be a constructive exercise. The highlights of this platform are preparing students and honing their caliber to an extent that they can conduct the interaction themselves with an expert of a given domain. The first edition of the JusManthan-Manchah, organised on January 19-20, 2023; was graced by the presence of Hon'ble Shri Justice Sharad A. Bobde, Former Chief Justice of India, who interacted with the Samanvayaks, student coordinators of the Centre. Justice Bobde enlightened the students by his words of wisdom on various topics ranging from his academic life to professional life and the Indic Knowledge System.

- JusManthan Vaadah- Under the platform of JusManthan Vaadah, the Centre hosted a healthy debate for the students of the University on the motion 'Media Plays a Constructive Role in Fostering Shaastric Ideas'. The tag line of this platform is 'Anishiddham Anumatam' which means that 'what is unopposed will be considered as agreed upon'. The highlight of this event was a 'Professor v. Professor' debate wherein the internal faculty was invited to participate in the debate for throwing more light on the motion. The faculties debated the same motion by remarkably interweaving their arguments on Media, Shaastras, Society, History, Politics, Linguistics and Law.
- Shaastrakar Zones- The Indic Scholar Zones- The Shaastrotsav Fest promoted a healthy competition amongst students to display and exhibit the knowledge propounded by the various Indic Scholars or the Shaastrakaras. These zones presented the ideas and wisdom of various Indic Scholars in fun-filled manner of games and activities. The fest had four prominent shaastrakar zones namely the Gautama, Panini, Chanakya and Jaimini. At the end of the Fest the team putting up the most creative and engaging zone was awarded with the 'Best Shaastrakar Zone Award'.

10.10 Mental Health at the University

Objective

The Mental Health Army (MHA) aims to foster a supportive campus environment, to promote mental health and well-being. By creating a culture that prioritizes mental wellness, the MHA empowers students to seek help when needed, ensuring a resilient and thriving University community.

Activities

The Mental Health activities at the University are conducted by two counsellors viz. Mrs. Karthika Jamdar and Ms. Rowena Phillips along with a team of students and volunteers.

Areas of Help:

- Academic Adjustment
- Pressure handling
- Time Management
- Social Anxiety
- Peer interaction
- Depression
- Career Dilemma
- Relationship issues
- Family distress issues
- Performance anxiety
- Time Management
- Social Anxiety
- Depression

Conducted a session at the hostel at Moraj, with first year students on the importance of Mental Health and encouraged them for personal counselling sessions, whenever required.

World Suicide Prevention Day

While students were on internship break a three days online campaign was carried to remember “World Suicide Prevention Day” celebrated on September 10, 2022 under the theme for “Creating Hope Through Action” by raising awareness and reducing the stigma around suicide, with the idea of encouraging prevention of suicide. The Mental Health Team made a beautiful music video to encourage students to look for the better days ahead. This was furthered by wonderful poems, reels, and posts on positive living. The team also sent an awareness e-mail to all the students and faculty members.

World Mental Health Day

On the occasion of the World Mental Health Day, the Mental Health Team organised a two-day mental health camp October 10, 2022 in university counsellor guidance. The camp witnessed excellent participation from the students and faculty alike and was a grand success. The two-day camp's primary activity was personal and private mental health sessions counsellors under the guidance of Mrs. Kartika Jamdar and Rowena Phillips the team also undertook the initiative of involving the faculty members as well through publicly available activities like appreciation boards and fortune cookie boxes both at the academic block and the faculty chamber. Members of the University were encouraged to write positive messages on the appreciation board to encourage a positive environment in the campus. The fortune cookie boxes made sure that everything was fun and happy, with a personal touch of a note that members could take away for themselves.

Don't be scared just Dare Campaign

The Mental Health Army organised a campaign called “Don't be scared just Dare”, in February 2023 to help elevate mood and create a positive environment to overcome exam stress, before the mid-semester examination which were to be held in offline mode for the first time in the University after the coronavirus pandemic. A big display board was set up at the entrance of the academic block wherein students and faculty could write messages regarding the exams to help de-stress and share valuable tips, tricks, and suggestions. The activity saw great participation as the board was almost full in few hours only. Using technology, an Instagram live session was also organised with the Counsellor so that students could discuss issues with her from the comfort of their home. Overall, the activity was successful as students shared positive feedback.

International Happiness Day

The International Day of Happiness is celebrated throughout the world on March 20, 2023 as a way to recognise the importance of happiness in the lives of people around the world. The Mental Health Army attempted to bring the essence of this year's theme, “Be Mindful. Be Grateful. Be Kind.”, on campus this year with the activities they conducted.

The flagship event was a painting competition, wherein we received 20+ entries. Students were encouraged to show what makes them happy through art. There were no restrictions on the medium of art, and students were allowed to paint, draw, and even sketch. All the paintings were displayed at the entrance of the academic block, and the paintings of the winners were framed and presented to the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor. Online activities through Instagram were also done to mark the day. There was an online art activity which worked as a de-stress factor for students. They were encouraged to draw a specific pattern in order to clear their thoughts. An information booklet was made to make students aware about the importance of the International Day of Happiness. It included the UN's objectives to mark the day, along with legal news on mental health. A hardcopy was also given to the University administration.

The journal seeks to provide a platform for legal researchers, scholars, students, academicians, administrators, members of the bar and the bench, policymakers and members of civil society to high spot on the latest debates and sprouting conversations and tries to give insights on the concomitant matters affecting the society.

The Journal has taken tremendous leaps forward in interdisciplinary socio-legal research. The journal thrusts to new dimensions and keeps on expanding its horizon to supplement the brain seeds of readers and pushes them to grow into a tree. The University follows a rigorous and arduous selection and editing process to ensure the standard and quality papers published in the journal.

A special issue of Journal on “Shaping Jurisprudence of Access and Benefit-sharing and Biodiversity Conservation: Emerging Trends” was released on April 24, 2022 at the hands of Hon'ble Shri Justice Sunil B. Shukre, Administrative Judge, High Court of Bombay Bench at Nagpur; Prof. (Dr.) Paramjit Singh Jaswal, Vice-Chancellor, SRM University, Sonapat; and Shri Praveen Srivastava IFS, Principal Chief Conservator of Forests and Member Secretary, Maharashtra State Biodiversity Board in the presence of Prof. (Dr.) Vijender Kumar, Vice-Chancellor; Dr. Ashish J. 13.3.4 Sports Committee

During the period under report, the Sports Committee of the University conducted the following activities:

13.3.4.1 Intra-University Cricket Tournament held during April 16-17, 2022

After two years of restrictions due to COVID-19 pandemic, the newly elected Sports Committee of the University under the guidance of Dr. Sumit Bamhore, as the faculty advisor along with the student members of the committee, conducted an Intra-University Cricket Tournament during April 16-17, 2022, at SRG MS Dhoni Cricket Academy, Nagpur, in order, to end the idleness and to instil new hopes and energy among the students. The committee created four teams, with the faculty members acting as owners and co-owners i.e., Big Bulls, Super Warriors, Super Kings, and Royal Challengers and efficiently held the players auction on April 7, 2022.

Additionally, the tournament also featured the cricket team of the non-teaching staff of the University i.e., Eleven Star, which was owned by Prof. (Dr.) Vijender Kumar, Vice-Chancellor of the University and Dr. Ashish J. Dixit, Registrar of the University. Thus, the tournament featured five teams in total, with four teams of the student and one team of non-teaching staff. In the midst of the continuing epidemic, this sporting event lifted the spirits of all the students as well as teaching and non-teaching staff.

13.3.4.2 Sportacus 3.0

Sportacus is an Intra-University Sports Fest of MNLU, Nagpur since the year 2018 and now it has revived post pandemic. Following the tradition, started since 2018, the Sports Committee of the University under the guidance of Dr. Sumit Bamhore, Assistant Registrar (Admin) and Assistant Professor of Law, Dr. Sushant K. Waghmare, Assistant Professor of Management, and Ms. Trishla Dubey, Assistant Professor of Law organised the third edition of the Intra University Sports Fest 'Sportacus 3.0' during November 9-13, 2022. The event covered nice (9) sports including outdoor and indoor sports. It experienced a huge number of participations by the students, faculty members, and non-teaching staff of the University. The event started with the player auctions for Cricket and Football teams. In which teachers were divided into groups and were allotted different teams and points. It was a lot of fun for the students and the teachers as well. The participation of boys was over 300, and for girls it was about 150.

13.3.5 Cultural Committee

The Cultural Committee of the University, organised Lawkriti 3.0 during January 13-15, 2023. Various Competitions were held during the cultural fest such as dancing, singing, group dancing, group singing, fashion show, poetry and shayari, monoact and nukkad natak, rangoli, painting, photography, face painting and many more.

14. ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We gratefully acknowledge the contributions made by the Hon'ble Chancellor, Hon'ble Pro-Chancellor, Hon'ble Members of the General Council, Executive Council, Academic Council, Finance Committee and Building Committee. Their guidance and continuous support have helped the University in developing and emerging as a centre of excellence in Central India. The University is especially thankful to the Hon'ble Judges (sitting and retired) of the Supreme Court of India and the High Court of Bombay for interacting with the students, research scholars and members of the faculty, and while chairing, participating and attending various meetings of the University.

The University is indebted to the Government of Maharashtra and its senior officers including Chief Secretary, Additional Chief Secretary, Principal Secretary-Finance, Principal Secretary of Higher and Technical Education, Principal Secretary, Public Works Department (Building and NH), Maharashtra and Principal Secretary, Law and Judiciary Department, Joint Director, Higher and Technical Education, Nagpur, Chief Engineer, PWD, Nagpur; Superintending Engineer, PWD, Nagpur and Executive Engineer, Division Number 1, PWD, Nagpur.

Further, the University is also thankful to the Chairman and the Secretary of the UGC; the Chairman of the Bar Council of India; and the Bar Council of Maharashtra and Goa for providing immense whole-hearted support to the University and numerous individuals whose names are far too many to mention here. The University wishes to place on record its gratitude and appreciation to all the donors, supporters, and well-wishers.
